Long Live the Klug!

is the popular cry throughout European countries, while in America, the cry of the present day is, "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says, "It never fails to give immediate relief or to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discoveries cure weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed. It is the only cure for colds and it is the only cure for coughs. Guaranteed by B. H. Gorrell, druggist, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Unclaimed Letters

Following is the list of unclaimed letters remaining in the Lexington postoffice for the week ending January 28, 1907:
Anderson, Miss Fanny
Agner, Miss Susie M.
Crane, Miss Mary
Coe, Miss Bessie
Erie, The Misses
Irwin, Miss Annie
Pace, James
Persons calling for these letters all please say they are advertised.
McCLUNG PATTON, P. M.

The Charming Woman

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Mary a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, even to her self. Elctric Bitters cures weak women, gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed by B. H. Gorrell, druggist, 50c.

Entertainment at Bath

The ladies of the Rockbridge Bath neighborhood will hold a entertainment at Riverside schoolhouse on Friday, February 1st. An interesting program, consisting of music and speaking, will be presented. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged for adults, and 5 cents for children. Supper will be served for 25 cents. An enjoyable time is offered all who may attend.

A Card

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures the grippe, colds and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in yellow packages. Refuse substitutes. B. H. Gorrell

Penny Stamps

Owing to the great demand among the traveling public for one-cent stamps to use on post cards to be mailed to friends the postoffice department has ordered that they be placed on sale in books of twenty-four each on March 1. The books will be sold at 25 cents each the same as 12 two-cent stamps are now sold in books at that price.

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law
We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we can recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. B. H. Gorrell.

Poultry for Jamestown

A news item says that the farmers of Fluvanna county are redoubting their energies in the poultry business, realizing the crowds that will flock to the Jamestown Exposition, and hope for a tidal wave of prosperity. It would not be a bad idea for the farmers of Rockbridge to do likewise.

How to Avoid Appendicitis

Most victims of appendicitis are those who use habitual constipation. Orinolaxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orinolaxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. B. H. Gorrell.

Church Social

The ladies of the Lexington Baptist church will hold a social at the home of Mrs. L. D. Hamrick, main street, Lexington, Thursday evening, January 31, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who may desire to attend.

An Insidious Danger

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious danger and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. B. H. Gorrell.

Land Sale

Mr. J. W. McCormick of near Wesley Chapel has bought the old Adair farm near Abing, containing 190 acres, and will sell possession April 1st. Mr. McCormick will move his family there and make that place his home.

A Wonderful Happening

Port Byron, N. Y., has witnessed one of the most remarkable cases of healing ever recorded. Aaron P. King of that place says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured sore on my leg with which I had suffered over 30 years. I am now eighty-five." Guaranteed to cure all sores, by B. H. Gorrell, druggist, 25c.

Cold and Cough

Last Sunday afternoon a slight snow fell, measuring several inches. Sunday night the thermometer fell to from six to ten degrees, according to location in town. Monday was a raw day, but not windy.

A Memorable Day

One of the days we remember with pleasure, as well as with profit to our health, is the one on which we became acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, the painless purgative that cures headache and biliousness and keeps the bowels right. 25c at Gorrell's drug store.

A laxative leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulate (25c per box) correct the liver, tone the stomach and cure constipation.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

Don't get up with baby these cold nights. Instead give him Fahrney's Teething Syrup. It prevents and cures colic. All druggists.

W. C. T. U. Institute Next Week

The Lexington W. C. T. U. will hold an institute and two public meetings next week at Trinity Methodist church. The first public meeting will be held Wednesday evening, February 6th, beginning at 8 o'clock, and will be under the management of Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, president of the Virginia State W. C. T. U., and her husband. The following day, Thursday, there will be an all-day institute held in the Sunday school room of the same church, the morning session beginning at 10:30 o'clock, and the afternoon, at 2 o'clock. At these meetings interesting papers will be read and discussions participated in under the leadership of the above-named temperance workers. Another public meeting will be held Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, at which Mrs. Hoge and Mr. Hoge will make addresses.

All members of the Lexington and county unions, as well as others, including residents of the town and county, are earnestly requested to attend these meetings.

Special music will be a feature of all the meetings.

Death of Mrs. J. A. Templeton

Mrs. Mary E. Templeton, wife of Mr. James A. Templeton, of near Decatur, died last Thursday afternoon from blood poisoning resulting from a sore ankle, at the age of 61 years. The funeral was held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at Decatur chapel, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Schreckhise, assisted by Rev. J. Spencer Smith of Fairfield. Interment was made at the Cemetery Reformed Presbyterian at Cemetery at Timber Ridge.

Mrs. Templeton was a daughter of the late Michael Supinger of near Decatur. Her husband and four children survive, two sons and two daughters; also her mother and one brother, Mr. William Supinger, and one sister, Mrs. Lucy Deaver of Brownsburg.

Third Class Cadets Reinstated by Board of Visitors

Following is the order published last Thursday afternoon at dress parade at Virginia Military Institute, containing the findings of the Board of Visitors reinstating the seventy-four members of the third class dismissed on the 8th instant by the superintendent for wilful and deliberate violation of paragraph 123 of the regulations forbidding combinations or agreements among cadets with the view of violating or evading any regulation or doing any act contrary to the rules of good order and subordination, the execution of which order was suspended until it could be reviewed by the Board of Visitors, and having also considered the application of said cadets dated January 22, 1907, for reinstatement:

"1. That the charges made against such cadets have been fully proved and established not only by evidence but by admission.

"2. That in making the said order of dismissal the superintendent discharged his duty and had no election under the regulations to act otherwise than he did and his action is fully approved by the board.

"Nevertheless, it appearing to the board from the evidence that many and probably most of the said cadets did not fully appreciate the meaning of their action and did not intend to defy authority, but were misled into participation in this violation of the regulation by a few of their associates who acted with the evil design of involving a large number of their classmates in similar troubles to those already impending over them, and thus to shield themselves as far as practicable from the obloquy probably attaching to their own prior discreditable conduct, and it further appearing to the board, greatly to its regret, impracticable to obtain the evidence by which to ascertain certainly the names of those evil minded ring leaders, the board, considering all conditions, unwilling to impose the extreme penalty of dismissal upon all the cadets named, but deems it proper that suitable penalties be imposed, therefore it is ordered by the board that said order of January 6th, 1907, be so modified as to remit the penalty of dismissal and that in lieu thereof the following penalties be imposed upon the cadets:

"1. That each of said cadets be confined to the limits of the post until the end of the present session, and that each of said cadets be given 20 penalty tours.

"2. That each of said cadets be permitted to remain a cadet only upon strict probation as to his conduct in every respect, during the remainder of the present session, and that failure in duty on the part of any one of them in this respect shall be forthwith followed by dismissal.

"3. That Cadet Corporal C. W. Stevens be reduced to ranks for wilful neglect of duty."

The third classmen presented papers to the board signed by those guilty of violation of regulations, in which they disclaimed any vicious or malicious spirit towards the superintendent, the commandant or any one in authority at the Institute, in their recent infractions of the rules, and they offered apologies in the spirit of submission. They further stated that they realized their error, and pledged themselves to submit to such punishment as those in authority might deem wise and just to inflict, with the request, however, that the punishment be not extended to suspension, as it was their earnest desire to pursue their studies without interruption.

The members of the board present were: Messrs. Alexander Hamilton, president, William T. Shields, A. F. Ravenel, J. L. White, T. L. Tate, A. M. Blevins, T. J. Nottingham, J. D. Eggleston and Charles J. Anderson.

The board ordered the erection of the new library building at once, so that it may be completed in time for the library to be removed from the present library building in order to begin the work of changing that building into cadet barracks. The contract for the new building was let to Snead & Co. of Lynchburg.

A committee composed of Messrs. Hamilton and Blow and Adjutant General Anderson was appointed to recommend a successor to General Shipps as superintendent at the meeting of the board in June.

Smallpox in Buffalo Vicinity

Smallpox prevails in the neighborhoods of Murat and Oak Dale on Buffalo, near the mountains. Several families are under quarantine, and the schools and churches of that section of Rockbridge have been closed by the county health board, to guard against possible infection.

The disease was brought to Rockbridge by a man named Childers, whose home is at Gala, Botetourt county. He visited the neighborhood of Oak Dale during the Christmas holidays, and a number of people were infected with the disease before the nature of the malady was determined by the health authorities. Dr. A. D. Estill of the county health board, when notified of the disease, at once took steps to have all persons quarantined who in any way had come in contact with the disease or had visited at the houses where there is infection.

At present some ten or twelve persons have the disease in a mild form, and judging from the prevalence of smallpox a few years ago, no alarm is felt for the outcome.

Board of Supervisors' Meeting Saturday

The Board of Supervisors of Rockbridge held an adjourned meeting at the Courthouse Saturday, all the members being present, as follows: Messrs. J. J. L. Kinneer, chairman, J. H. Whitmore, W. E. L. Stark, G. A. Ayres, C. M. Shewey and R. L. Patterson.

The main purpose for which the meeting was held was to have all the back trinites signed, which, in some instances, had been omitted. Chairman Kinneer signed a number of minutes, some of them recorded during the incumbency of his predecessor.

The health officer of the County Board of Health, Dr. A. D. Estill, was instructed to employ guards for the small-pox cases in the county, at prices not to exceed 75 cents a day.

Mr. W. S. Hopkins appeared before the board and asked for an appropriation for the Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital. The matter was continued.

Mr. W. C. Stuart, member of the sinking fund commission, appeared before the board for instructions concerning the cancellation of the $10,000 of Courthouse bonds which have been redeemed, and the board deferred action until the residue of the bonds ($4,000) are redeemed in May.

A report of the receipts and expenditures of the Walker's Creek District Road Board was presented, showing the receipts to be $6,317.15, and expenditures $4,848.84, leaving in the treasury a balance of $1,468.31. This amount will be increased to $3,168.81 when cost of the bridge across Big River is returned to the district road board. That board was authorized by the Board of Supervisors to have the work done and pay for same, which amount would be returned to their treasury.

Supervisor Stark received an order from the board authorizing the Natural Bridge District Road Board to make roads in that district in the manner deemed best by the said road board until further orders from the Board of Supervisors.

Supervisors Patterson and Stark were appointed a committee to correspond with the superintendent of the penitentiary and ascertain the number of convicts available for working the public roads, and report on the same at the next meeting of the board.

The committee on the Woods' Creek bridge was continued. A verbal report, however, was made which estimated the cost of the improvement to be from $1,200 to $1,500.

Color Photography No Longer a Secret

Under the above caption a Richmond paper a few days ago stated that "at least a practical photographic color process has been developed, and it is possible for one to get his or her picture taken in all the beauty of lifelike colors."

The article continues with the statement that the artist for nearly two years has been able "to turn out work even surpassing the dreams of many who have worked for years in a vain attempt to find the photographic 'Eldorado.'"

Color photography is no new thing in Lexington. For the past eight or ten years Mr. M. Miley has been successfully producing this kind of work. The process is his own invention, and known only to his gallery. The specimens of work exhibited show that the process has been developed to a very high state of perfection. By this method he is able to reproduce by photography the richest colorings of any object or picture, and all the delicate shades are preserved with most wonderful faithfulness. Among the numerous pictures taken by Messrs. Miley & Son are copies of paintings by the masters, and the colorings of the photographs and of the paintings are identical.

Several medals have been conferred upon Mr. Miley for his work in color photography, notably by the St. Louis Exposition and by the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia.

Col. J. K. P. Hanna Here

Col. J. K. P. Hanna of Calvert, Texas, class '68-69, Washington College, is stopping at the Lexington Hotel. He paid a visit to the Graham-Lee Literary Society of the University Saturday night, and delighted its members with a humorous though practical talk. His recollections of the "Sons of Confucius" of his own college days brought down the society. His advice to concentrate one's energy on an supreme object and pursue it untiringly was very impressive.

Colonel Hanna is deputy sovereign commander of the Woodmen of the World, and is instituting a camp of that order in Lexington. He will address the people of this community on the purposes of the Woodmen within a few days. We learn he is meeting with success.

Young-Fulwider

The Staunton Dispatch of Thursday, January 24th, contained the following marriage notice:

Mr. J. W. Young of Richmond, and Miss Lula Fulwider of Raphine, were married at Davis, at the home of Mr. E. Fulwider, brother of the bride, at 9 o'clock, yesterday morning by Rev. S. W. Haddon, of Old Providence Presbyterian church.

The bride is the lovely daughter of Mr. T. W. Fulwider of Raphine. The groom is a native of Staunton, who is now in business in Richmond with fine prospects. They will make their home in Richmond.

The Lee Endowment Movement Endorsed

The Sunday State of Columbia, S. C., of January 27th, has the following editorial notice of President Roosevelt's suggestion to establish a memorial to General Lee at some Southern institution of learning:

"The proposal by President Roosevelt in his letter to the Lee Memorial Society of Washington, 'by appealing to all our people, in every section of the country to commemorate his (Lee's) life and deeds by the establishment at some great representative educational institution of the South, of a permanent memorial, that will serve the youth of the coming years, as he in the closing years of his life served those who so sorely needed what he so freely gave,' has struck a responsive chord of grateful sympathy throughout the South, and we hope, will meet with generous response throughout the country."

"This proposal has already taken shape in the purpose to endow Washington and Lee University by voluntary contributions from 'people in every section of the country' so as to enable that institution to carry out the great designs conceived by General Lee and left unfinished by his death. This surely, would be the noblest monument that could be erected to his memory."

If, as was recently said, he now lives 'in spirit and eternal fame' there would live also, in perpetual benefaction to the youth of the coming years, and would render to the South he loved so well the most enduring and appropriate service. We hope that the proposed endowment may be abundantly realized."

Confederate Flags for General Lee's Tomb

A resident of Richmond who was one of the visitors at the Lee centenary exercises in Lexington on the 19th, published an article in yesterday's Times-Dispatch suggesting the appropriateness of making Gen. Lee's mausoleum a depository of Confederate flags. The writer says: "As I stood and gazed at it (the recumbent statue) in silent admiration, the thoughts occurred to me how appropriate it would be to surround this statue with old battle-stained Confederate flags, in somewhat similar manner to the way the battle-flags are grouped around the tomb of Napoleon in the 'Hotel des Invalides' in Paris. Where could we find a more appropriate resting place for the flags of the Confederacy than to place them about the tomb of the man who for four long years guarded them so valiantly?"

The Times-Dispatch approves the suggestion, and says that the sight of General Lee's peaceful face as represented in the marble statue, surrounded by the mute witnesses of his country's colors, will awaken and quicken a true appreciation of the highest type of Christian citizenship.

Death of Mr. H. T. Lindsay

Mr. Horatio Thompson Lindsay died at his home near Abing, Rockbridge county, on Thursday afternoon, January 24th, from pneumonia. The funeral took place from his late home Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. D. A. Perick, pastor of New Monmouth church, assisted by Rev. J. W. Shuey, pastor of Bethany Lutheran church. The interment was made at Bethany cemetery.

Mr. Lindsay was a son of the late Thomas Lindsay, and his age was 61 years. He was born and reared in the Abing neighborhood, where his life was spent in farming. He entered the Confederate Army in 1863 as a member of Company H, 14th Virginia Infantry, and served till the end of the war.

Mr. Lindsay is survived by his widow, who before marriage was Miss Emma McGuffin, daughter of the late Thomas H. McGuffin of near Abing, and two daughters, Mrs. Lula Carson, wife of Mr. Charles Carson of Augusta county, and Miss Eva Lindsay.

Death of Mr. Joseph Falls

Mr. Joseph Falls was found dead in bed Friday morning at his home near Ben Salem, four miles east of Lexington. It is supposed that his death was due to heart trouble, with which disease he had for some years been a sufferer.

Mr. Falls was born and reared in Amherst county, and was aged about 65 years. He served as a member of Captain Thomas Whitehead's company in the 2nd Virginia Cavalry during the Civil War. Shortly after the close of the war, he came to Rockbridge, where he since made his home.

The funeral took place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock from Wesley Chapel Methodist church, of which he had long been a faithful member, and the body was laid to rest in the church burying ground. Rev. L. L. Lowance, the pastor, conducted the services.

Mr. Falls is survived by ten children, four sons and six daughters. His wife, who was a Miss Bare, died some years ago.

Hoop Poles

Moses Brothers will pay $6.00 per thousand for tickery and white oak hoop poles. They want 50,000 poles.

The Washington and Lee basket ball team will go to Staunton Friday to play the Staunton Military Academy team.

How to Avoid Pneumonia

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough and expels the cold from the system as it is mildly laxative. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. B. H. Gorrell.

For Lung Troubles

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. And it certainly strengthens weak throats and weak lungs. There can be no mistake about this. You know it is true. And your own doctor will say so.

"The best kind of a testimonial—'Sold for over sixty years.'"

We have no secrets. We publish the formulae of all our medicines.

Keep the bowels regular with Ayer's Pills and thus hasten recovery.

W. L. U. Basket Ball Team Shows Great Force

The Washington and Lee Basket Ball Team played the Yaningans to a standstill on Saturday evening, running up the large score of 50 to 14. The work of the team is a source of great pleasure to the basket ball enthusiasts and a great team will be in evidence before the season closes. T. O. Bagley was tried at guard and showed a great natural aptitude for the game; Coach Krebs will no doubt use him in future games.

Osborne, another new recruit, shows a vast amount of speed and gives great promise. Streit and Smart played a very fine game throughout and worked together beautifully.

Following was the line-up.
W. L. U. Positions Yaningans
Stretcher..... Robertson
Smart..... J. L. Robertson
Osborne..... J. L. Chatham
Bagley T. O. g..... Per Moore..... J. L. Brown

Mrs. Jackson Declined Pension

A dispatch from Raleigh, N. C., of January 26th, says: The Senate of North Carolina received today a letter from Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson, declining to accept a pension of $100 a month provided under a resolution introduced a few days ago.

"I most welcomingly appreciate this patriotic and loyal tribute to the name of my hero-husband," she says, "but I do not feel that I would be justified in accepting it. I am informed that the laws of North Carolina limit all pensions to those who have not $500 of personal property, and as I do not come under this law, I respectfully request that the bill be withdrawn."

Mrs. Jackson suggests that the money proposed in her behalf be appropriated for the relief of destitute widows of Confederate Veterans.

In accordance with the desire of Mrs. Jackson the bill calling for the pension was withdrawn from the calendar.

Prof. J. J. Jones on Lee Memorial

University of South Carolina, Columbia, Jan. 27, 1907.
Editor Gazette:—I have read with great interest in the last issue of THE GAZETTE your strong appeal in behalf of the Lee Centennial endowment for Washington and Lee University, as proposed by President Roosevelt. This proposal meets with my heartiest sympathy, as it must appeal also to all who honor the memory of General Lee and, for his sake, love the institution which he served and adorned.

In my address here, on the Lee Centennial, of which I have the honor to send you a copy, I made some reference to the great plans left unfinished by General Lee at his death. There could be no nobler tribute to his memory than to enable the institution which he loved to carry out his great designs and thus to enlarge and perpetuate the services to which he devoted, so nobly, the last years of his life.

Yours, very respectfully,
EDWARD S. JONES.

Colliertown Cuttings

GAZETTE Correspondence
JAN. 29.—The ladies of the Colliertown Methodist church will have an oyster supper and other refreshments today, beginning at 2 o'clock p. m. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church.

Some of our public school teachers observed the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Gen. Lee by giving lectures. Mr. G. A. Ayres at upper Black's Creek school gave a fine entertainment.

It has been announced from the pulpit that on next Sunday, February 3, one additional ruling elder will be elected in the Colliertown Presbyterian church.

All the public schools on Buffalo creeks except one have been closed on account of smallpox. Two new cases have been reported at houses that have been under quarantine. Total number of cases reported are nine.

Mrs. Thomas Sale and Mr. Albert Hall, who have been critically ill for several weeks, are glad to say are convalescing.
